FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 2019

5:30 PM • Welcome Reception with delectable food stations situated throughout The Conrad Prebys Performing Arts Center.

7:30 PM • Ribbon-cutting ceremony for The Baker-Baum Concert Hall.

8:00 PM • A star-studded Gala performance, featuring an eclectic array of internationally acclaimed performers including; violinist Hilary Hahn, pianist Jean-Yves Thibaudet, SummerFest Music Director and pianist Inon Barnatan, ukulele sensation Jake Shimabukuro, international “jookin” phenom Lil Buck, the revered Miro Quartet, a world premiere new work by Lifetime Grammy Winner Lalo Schiffrin set to live visual projection by creative technologist Osman Koc and a special joint performance by our past SummerFest Music Directors David Finckel and Wu Han, Cho-Liang Lin and Heiichiro Ohyama. Plus, a few more surprises.

9:30 PM • As a grand finale, enjoy scrumptious desserts and champagne as you continue to explore and mingle with guests throughout The Conrad.

SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 2019

8:00 PM • The celebration continues on Saturday with a pop artist concert in The Baker-Baum Concert Hall. A reception follows the concert in The JAI.

SUNDAY, APRIL 7, 2019

5:00 PM • Reception on The Belanich Terrace at The Conrad

6:00 PM • Seated Dinner in the Wu Tsai QRT.yrd (courtyard)

8:00 PM • Jazz concert in The JAI (named in honor of Joan and Irwin Jacobs) featuring The Hot Sardines. This is a 1920s themed event.
